“ My broad experience in the horse industry and in professional education, allows me to deliver progressive, sequential training to the horse and rider. I specialise in Classical Dressage, with particular attention to the position of the rider, the correct application of the aids and the German Training Scales. I have coached many trainers of dressage and their horses and have been praised for the quality of my “ Eyes on the Ground”. I bring the experiences of Rider, Coach, Trainer and Grand Prix judge to all my teaching. ”

“It has to be said that the horses genuinely like Peter’s approach to training and very quickly form a bond with him on the ground”
