

PROFILE: RON PATERSON

RON PATERSON is an FEI International Eventing Judge, a National 'A' Level Dressage Judge, an NCAS Level 3 General Coach, an Educator and Mentor in programs for Judges and Coaches and an assessor in the Interschool Equestrian Association.

Ron trained extensively with the late Franz Mairinger. In 1983 he received The Dunhill Dressage Scholarship which enabled him to train in Warendorf, Germany, at the German National Training Centre. With over 40 years competition experience in Dressage, Show Jumping and Eventing, he has consistently won competitions from Novice to FEI, at State and National levels. Ron was short-listed twice for the Olympics in Eventing and Dressage and has trained eight horses to FEI level.

As a coach, Ron has played an active part in the training of many riders and horses who have represented Australia in medal-winning teams. Ron is an expert in establishing and consolidating the correct training regime for the development of both horse and rider for a successful career in the competition arena.

CLININC

25th Feb - 28th Feb 2009

The cost is $125.00 for a 45 minute lesson.

Ron is here from 4pm on the 25th Feb and will take lessons to 7pm on this day.

Full day on Thursday 26th and Friday 27th starting at 7am.

Saturday the 28th from 7am with last lesson at 3pm.

Contact:

Lee Bahnisch

BROOKLEIGH ESTATE

1235 Great Northern Highway

Upper Swan WA 6069

Ph: 9296 0018

Fax: 9296 0014

Mob:0438 090 160